Universidade de Aveiro
Departamento de Electrónica,
Telecomunicações e Informática

Presentation guidelines

Realidade Virtual e Aumentada   Beatriz Sousa Santos
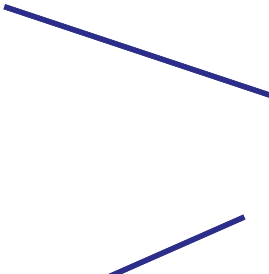

Analyze and present a conference/ journal paper:

Each student must:

- select a long paper (10+ pages) from one of the conferences

  or   communicate preferences
                                         until October, 26

- Propose another paper

- Read the paper presentation guidelines (presentation guidelines)

- Make a ~ 25 min presentation

- Send the slides to (bss@ua.pt)

Alternatively:
analyze and present a book section
or a VR/AR Framework/Tool:

- select a book section

send preferences to (bss@ua.pt)
until October, 26

    or a Framework/Tool

- Read the guidelines before preparing the presentation (presentation guidelines)

- Make a ~25min presentation

- Send the slides to (bss@ua.pt)

Discuss papers

- After each paper presentation:

  - We discuss the paper

  - Students vote on their colleagues' presentation
    (through an online form)

  (Link available in Moodle)

Assessment

- Presentations will be evaluated:

    – By the course coordinator at the end of the semester
    – By all the students, after each presentation, via e-voting

- Using the following scale:

    – Very good – 18
    – Good – 15
    – Sufficient – 12
    – Insufficient - 8

- Taking into consideration:

    – Relevance of the topic
    – Organization and clarity of the slides
    – Bibliography
    – Presentation (motivation, clarity and attitude)
    – Answers to the questions
    – Time

Virtual and Augmented Reality - Paper Presentation Assessment

* Required

Date *

[Month ▽] [Day ▽]

Name of Paper Presenter *

[   ]

Name of voter *

[   ]

Presentation assessment

Organization and clarity of slides

○ Very Good (18/20)

○ Good (16/20)

○ Pass (12/20)

○ Failed

Presentations

- Presentations must:

  - Slides n English

  - Include in the 1st slide:
    - The complete reference of the paper
      (authors, title, publication, date, pages)
    - Name, number, and study program of the presenter
    - Name of the course and date of presentation

  - Explain the choice of this paper and its relevance

  - Make an introduction and contextualization of the problem

  - Present the main aspects (methods, results, …) addressed in the paper

  - Present the most important conclusions (also in the presenter's opinion)

  - Include all the bibliography and sites used to prepare the presentation
    (last slide)

Presentations

- Presentations must:

  - Last for ~ 25 minutes (maximum)

  - Have ~ 25 slides

- Slides must:

  - In English

  - Be terse and coherent

  - Be numbered (except for the first one)

  - Not use too much text, too many colors, animations, complex backgrounds, etc.

  - Include figures, graphics, videos, demos, etc., when suitable

Presenters

- During the presentation, must:

  – use a formal, correct and accurate language

  – speak clearly, fluently and enthusiastically

  – Look at the audience and have a correct stance/ attitude

  – Do not exceed given time!

- Must send the presentations by email to bss@ua.pt before the lecture (in .ppt or .pdf)

Questions?

How to Give a Bad Talk: Ten commandments

(a piece of bad advice)

http://pages.cs.wisc.edu/~markhill/conference-talk.html

Thou shalt not be neat

Thou shalt not waste space

Thou shalt not covet brevity

Thou shalt not write large

Thou shalt not use color

Thou shalt not illustrate

Thou shalt not make eye contact

Thou shalt not skip slides in a long talk

Thou shalt not practice

Last commandment is most important. Even if you break the others, this one can save you!